

ALABAMA REPORTER
TALLADEGA, ALA.

THURSDAY, June 18.

HOUSE & LOT
FOR RENT.

The House & Lot recently occupied by Mr. J. W. Hardie, is for Rent until the 1st of January 1867. There is a garden of vegetables on the place which the renter can use. For terms, Apply at this office.

THE BAILEY TROUP.

Will give another Concert on Thursday, evening the 8th inst., at the same place, they exhibited before. Mrs. Molie Bailey, takes the benefit on this occasion. The play will be The "Lover of a Lover," a very interesting play, to conclude with the "Swiss Cottage." Mrs. Molie is good actress and we have no doubt but that they give a good Concert.

The Brass Band will be in attendance on the occasion.

Crocs and Sessons.

Grocs in some sections of our country are being raised at much greater cost, when we had a heavy rain which seemed to be general, extending over a large district of country. On Monday and Tuesday the rains continued and the earth is now thoroughly saturated. The present indications are that we shall have an abundant crop of corn, potatoes and peas.

Talladega Brass Band.

We were favored by the Talladega Brass Band with a delightful serenade Tuesday night last. We tender our thanks to the young gentlemen who have undertaken to enliven our Town with the concert of sweet sounds. They have made rapid progress since their organization. We congratulate them on their proficiency and feel that the Town will owe them a debt. Mr. Bailey prove himself a competent instructor.

Thieves.

Horse thieving which we had hoped was beginning to be abandoned seems to be springing up again, as quite a lively branch of business. That there are organized bands of these thieves prowling through the country, there can be no doubt. Let every good citizen be on the look out. First try to secure a horse, next aid in trying to hunt down and arrest these thieves and spare no trouble or expense to bring them down. The common saying should be, a common effort to catch them down. The government store room was broken into on Monday night, and eight macks of corn hauled away. Be on the lookout.

A WORD TO FARMERS.

The great scarcity of food for the past three years should teach our farmers to spare no efforts to secure an abundant supply of food for man and beast. Under the slave system nothing was thought of or cared for, except negroes, Cotton and mules. That day is passed. The system of labor is completely changed. Our lands are now ours.

The corn crib cannot be filled without going over a broader surface or a more thorough culture under an improved system of agriculture.

We must cease to look to the Western corn-markets as the sole reliance not only for bread but for food for every description of stock. This was a mistaken policy from the beginning.

The lands of this portion of the State are admirably adapted to small grain. By growing luxuriantly on poor land, makes an excellent winter pasture and will then yield a pretty fair crop. Nearly all the winter grasses do well here with a little attention. Most crops of almost all kind, can be raised with ease and in great abundance.

What we intend to suggest is that you do not rely exclusively upon your cattle for your cattle next winter begin in time, prepare your land thoroughly, have rye, oats, not merely a little patch to grow the others on, but large lots, on which you can raise and turn into possession of the money left them by the kindness of the Emperor.

Mujica made no address. He sent for Ecobedo and said he die poor, that he had never made an effort to make money. His only wealth consisted in forty cattle in the mountains. He asked that the merchants of Matamoros, to whom he was owed a considerable sum, not press his wife to collect the debt. He was a member of the Senate of President Jackson, by whom he was appointed to a seat on the bench of the United States Supreme Court in January, 1835. He has proved himself a sound and accomplished jurist. He has especially devoted his attention to the subject of admiralty jurisdiction, and his opinions on points connected with that subject are everywhere cited as highly authority. —Selma Times.

COMMENCEMENT DAY AT WASHINGTON COLLEGE, VA.

VA.

THE 26th day of June was Commencement Day at Washington College, Lexington, Va. Long before the hour appointed for the exercises to begin, the streets of that quiet town were filled with vehicles and foot passengers. A correspondent of a New York journal, who was present, gives the following particulars of the commencement with the best winter grasses.

John O. McDonald,

(a Relative.)

ISABELL GILLESPIY & CO.

Are now selling their "Dry Goods & Clothing at Cost. All other goods are greatly reduced prices.

If you want goods cheap now is your time.

Buy at Cost we propose to sell only for Cash or wheat at the Market price.

ISABELL GILLESPIY & CO.

July 14, 1867.

DANCING ACADEMY.

MR. & MRS. J. A. Bailey.

HAVING taken the Hall Room at the Exchange Hotel, will give dancing lessons in the evenings, lessons including Waltz, Polka, Schottische, Mazurka, Redowa, Vals, Quadrille, country dances, &c.

Terms of Tuition.

Juvenile Class, 12 lessons $6.00.

Adult Class, 12 lessons $10.00.

Saturday class meet every Wednesday and Saturday evenings at 8 o'clock.

The Juvenile Class will open on Saturday evening next.

June 27th, 1867.

$50 REWARD.

FIFTY Dollars Reward will be paid for the apprehension and delivery to me, of one W. G. Clark, (charged with a Grand Jury) who escaped from a guard in this place on 1st Inst. W. G. Clark is about 5 feet 11 inches high; fair complexion, dark hair, grey eyes, has light beard and weighs about 140 pounds, had on when he escaped, a suit of grey, or bleached colored Jeans—Sack Coat.

Toms concluded the exercises of the day. The band played that beautiful air—“Then you’ll remember me,” and the benediction was pronounced.

At sunset a most touching scene took place. Captain Smith’s Band walked up to the graveyard, followed by a silent crowd, arriving at the tomb of Stonewall Jackson, with one covered heads commanded singing the grand old hymn, “O! Little Town of Bethlehem.” There was no sound to touch. I saw old men and maidens weeping and the thoughts of all were leaning heavenward to him who had crossed over the river and is resting under the shade of the trees.

There was no sound to touch.

The prisoners were ordered to dispose of what they received and were compelled to give to the soldiers by whom they were guarded, and to the poor who hung around the prison.

High mass was said in the church.

Undergoes stop and the prisoners get out. Amongst the concours you can hardly see a dry eye. Tokens of dissatisfaction are manifested, Maximilian, in alighting, is saluted by the people, and with an elastic step he marches to the fatal spot. The prisoners are dressed in a plain manner. They are not bound or blindfolded.

In taking his position the Emp-er spoke in a clear and firm manner and with nothing of bravado.

He said when he was first wached upon at home

the deputation from Mexico who came with credentials, offering him the government of the country he refused.

At a subsequent audience he was told that he was to be appointed to the command of the army. He said he would not be bound by that. As far as he could see it was the Emperor that it was to his interest to place him at the head of the government he might consent.

Another deputation waited on him and brought additional testimonials, Upo n advice from the powers of Euro who advised him that there was no opportunity to pursue, he accepted the same. He was then sent to the court that tried him had the power to do so his was a case of good faith. The nations of the world had pledge their faith to him. He never would have done the act had it not been for the good of Mexico. He hoped his blood would stop the effusion of blood in the country.

Mujica spoke from a paper. The only regret he felt in dying was that he had let the Liberal party realize that he was their chief and he would be pointed out as the children of a traitor.

He told them he was no traitor, but had always opposed liberal principles, and always been opposed to the disorders of the country. He should die as he had lived a conservative, sainted life.

The name of his son would live and posterity would judge whether he was right or wrong. He died with a "Viva el Emperador viva Mexico."

Mujica made no address. He sent for Ecobedo and said he die poor, that he had never made an effort to make money. His only wealth consisted in forty cattle in the mountains.

He was chosen judge of the Supreme Court, and served for five years and ten months, high, white spot on the forehead; a black mane and tail and big spot in the left ear.

N. B. MARDIS,

Judge of Probate.

NOTICE TO SLEIGH-MAKERS.

PEAKS.

We are now matching a special ity of the Foun-

Trade and are prepared to offer unusual facilities to persons desirous of Shipping Flour to our market for sale,

the highest market price always obtained and rountened.

He was most

Major of the City.

On his resignation of that office, he was chosen judge of the Supreme Court, and served for five years and ten months, high, white spot

on the forehead; a black mane and tail and

big spot in the left ear.

He was a member of the Senate of President Jackson, by whom he was appointed to a seat on the bench of the United States Supreme Court in January, 1835. He has proved himself a sound and accomplished jurist. He has especially devoted his attention to the subject of admiralty jurisdiction, and his opinions on points connected with that subject are everywhere cited as highly authority. —Selma Times.

He was most

Major of the City.

On his resignation of that office, he was chosen judge of the Supreme Court, and served for five years and ten months, high, white spot

on the forehead; a black mane and tail and

big spot in the left ear.

N. B. MARDIS,

Judge of Probate.

NOTICE.

Suit by Attachment.

IN CIRCUIT COURT, Shelby Co. Ala.

Spring Term, 1867.

AMOS M. ELLIOTT.

4003 VS.

WILLIAM T. ROBERTSON.

THIS day came the Plaintiff

by Attorney and on his Motion

it is shown to the Court, that the Defendant is a Non-resident of this State. It is therefore ordered by the Court that the Plaintiff be granted a writ of attachment.

John H. Thornton,

Judge of Probate.

NOTICE.

Suit by Attachment.

IN CIRCUIT COURT, Shelby Co. Ala.

Spring Term, 1867.

BRASFIELD & CAMPBELL.

VS.

V. R. BRASFIELD.

THIS day came the Plaintiff

by Attorney and moved the Court for an order of publication against the Defendant on the ground that the Defendant is a Non-resident of this State. It is therefore ordered by the Court that Publication be made in the Talladega Reporter, a News Paper published in the town of Talladega, once a week, for four consecutive weeks, notifying the Defendant that unless he appear at the next term of the Circuit Court, he will be held to be in default, and the Plaintiff will be rendered against him by default.

AMOS M. ELLIOTT.

Clerk Circuit Court,

Shelby County, Ala.

July 11, 1867.

NOTICE.

Suit by Attachment.

IN CIRCUIT COURT, Shelby Co. Ala.

Spring Term, 1867.

BELTON O. NABORS.

VS.

WILLIAM HOLMES.

THIS day came the Plaintiff

by Attorney and on his Motion

it is shown to the Court, that the Defendant is a Non-resident of this State. It is therefore ordered by the Court that Publication be made in the Talladega Reporter, a News Paper published in the town of Talladega, once a week, for four consecutive weeks, notifying the Defendant that unless he appears at the next term of the Circuit Court, he will be held to be in default, and the Plaintiff will be rendered against him by default.

AMOS M. ELLIOTT.

Clerk Circuit Court,

Shelby County, Ala.

July 11, 1867.

NOTICE.

SUIT BY ATTACHMENT.

IN CIRCUIT COURT, Shelby Co. Ala.

Spring Term, 1867.

SHIRLEY SALE.

VS.

WILLIAM T. MCADAMS.

WATCH, CLOCK AND

JEWELRY REPAIRER,

Talladega, Ala.

July 11, 1867.

NOTICE.

SUIT BY ATTACHMENT.

IN CIRCUIT COURT, Shelby Co. Ala.

Spring Term, 1867.

AMOS M. ELLIOTT.

4003 VS.

WILLIAM T. ROBERTSON.

THIS day came the Plaintiff

by Attorney and on his Motion

it is shown to the Court, that the Defendant is a Non-resident of this State. It is therefore ordered by the Court that Publication be made in the Talladega Reporter, a News Paper published in the town of Talladega, once a week, for four consecutive weeks, notifying the Defendant that unless he appears at the next term of the Circuit Court, he will be held to be in default, and the Plaintiff will be rendered against him by default.

AMOS M. ELLIOTT.

Clerk Circuit Court,

Shelby County, Ala.

July 11, 1867.

NOTICE.

SUIT BY ATTACHMENT.

IN CIRCUIT COURT, Shelby Co. Ala.

Spring Term, 1867.

AMOS M. ELLIOTT.

4003 VS.

WILLIAM T. ROBERTSON.

THIS day came the Plaintiff

by Attorney and on his Motion

it is shown to the Court, that the Defendant is a Non-resident of this State. It is therefore ordered by the Court that Publication be made in the Talladega Reporter, a News Paper published in the town of Talladega, once a week, for four consecutive weeks, notifying the Defendant that unless he appears at the next term of the Circuit Court, he will be held to be in default, and the Plaintiff will be rendered against him by default.

AMOS M. ELLIOTT.

Clerk Circuit Court,

Shelby County, Ala.

July 11, 1867.

NOTICE.

SUIT BY ATTACHMENT.

IN CIRCUIT COURT, Shelby Co. Ala.

Spring Term, 1867.

AMOS M. ELLIOTT.

4003 VS.

WILLIAM T. ROBERTSON.

THIS day came the Plaintiff

by Attorney and on his Motion

it is shown to the Court, that the Defendant is a Non-resident of this State. It is therefore ordered by the Court that Publication be made in the Talladega Reporter, a News Paper published in the town of Talladega, once a week, for four consecutive weeks, notifying the Defendant that unless he appears at the next term of the Circuit Court, he will be held to be in default, and the Plaintiff will be rendered against him by default.

AMOS M. ELLIOTT.

Clerk Circuit Court,

Shelby County, Ala.

July 11, 1867.

NOTICE.

SUIT BY ATTACHMENT.

IN CIRCUIT COURT, Shelby Co. Ala.

Spring Term, 1867.

AMOS M. ELLIOTT.

4003 VS.

WILLIAM T. ROBERTSON.

THIS day came the Plaintiff

by Attorney and on his Motion

it is shown to the Court, that the Defendant is a Non-resident of this State. It is therefore ordered by the Court that Publication be made in the Talladega Reporter, a News Paper published in the town of Talladega, once a week, for four consecutive weeks, notifying the Defendant that unless he appears at the next term of the Circuit Court, he will be held to be in default, and the Plaintiff will be rendered against him by default.

AMOS M. ELLIOTT.

Clerk Circuit Court,

Shelby County, Ala.

July 11, 1867.

NOTICE.

SUIT BY ATTACHMENT.

IN CIRCUIT COURT, Shelby Co. Ala.